SPECIAL EVENT ZONE

Tuesday, October 6, 2026 through Sunday, October 11, 2026

With thousands of car enthusiasts in town, Ocean City will be designated a Special Event Zone beginning Tuesday, October 6, 2026, through Sunday, October 11, 2026, during the Endless Summer Cruisin' event.

The Special Event Zone reduces established speed limits in the zone and increases fines for violations. Additionally, legislation signed in 2020 allows for increased penalties for specific motor vehicle violations. Similar to a Construction Zone, violators will face increased fines or, in some cases, arrest.

During this time frame, citizens should expect a significant police presence as officers from multiple allied agencies will assist the Ocean City Police Department. Officers from the Ocean City Police Department, Maryland State Police, and the Worcester County Sheriff's Office will strictly enforce all traffic laws. In addition, significant traffic congestion and alternate traffic patterns are anticipated throughout the weekend.

Spectators are urged to keep the sidewalks clear for pedestrian traffic and should not incite the spinning of wheels or "burn-outs" by motorists. Officers will enforce all laws for spectators who incite drivers and enforce the violations with the driver. Further, with high pedestrian traffic expected, pedestrians are urged to Walk Smart! and always use crosswalks when crossing roadways. Wait for the signal to change, and ensure drivers see you while crossing.

For more information on the Special Event Zones, visit www.oceancitymd.gov/specialeventzone.

TRAILER PARKING

Bringing a Trailer?

Trailers and oversized vehicles may not be parked on Baltimore Avenue at any time. Parking a trailer or oversized vehicle on any street or paved public lot without a permit is prohibited between May 1 and October 31. Permits are available to registered participants of Endless Summer Cruisin' for a fee of $50. Trailer permits can be purchased from the OC Convention Center beginning October 8th.

There are two options for parking your trailer in town without a permit:

1. The West Ocean City Park & Ride has limited free trailer parking available starting Monday, October 5, 2026, through Monday, October 12, 2026.
2. Arrangements can be made with a private property owner to park on their lot.
